FOREWORD

The 1969-1970 Ko-Ka-Le-Ko is designed to help the faculty, friends, and student body of Cocalico recall all the fond memories experienced during the year. Each year, however, some people are dissatisfied with the publication. Nevertheless, we hope that this year we have succeeded in publishing a memorable and commendable Yearbook – "Another Bridge to Cross." Although many hours of hard work are spent on each page, mistakes are sure to be overlooked. For example, consider the procedure required to produce one page: First of all, Donna Ansel, our layout editor, sketches the approximate placement of each picture. Then, Terry Baker selects, crops, reduces and enlarges the pictures to fit the layout, and if necessary, he and Donna re-diagram the layout. Copy editor, Deedee Carvel, identifies and writes captions for each picture. After figuring copy space and coping the final layout over on a 3-R form, Terry gives the page to Jane Overholser, the staff typist. After Jane types the captions beneath each picture as well as the rest of the body copy, Ken Garner indexes each picture. Finally, after checking and double-checking, the page is signed and sent to the publisher. This procedure, which requires many hours of hard work, must be followed for each of the 124 pages. Also, Larry Getz, our business manager, does the entire advertising section himself. The underclassmen on the staff perform odd chores and many innumerable errands such as tracking down names, places, and dates of information to be used in the copy.

This year, the yearbook staff would like to acknowledge three people who willingly devoted much of their time to this publication – our advisor, Mrs. Darlene Boggs, our photographer, Mr. Amos Martin and our field representative, Mr. Neal Lazer. Mrs. Boggs not only advises the editors, she helps with the work as well. She also injects many new ideas which help to make our book unique. Mr. Martin is always "ready and willing" to meet our yearbook deadlines. He is subjected to only a twenty four hour notice and many times he comes as soon as he is called. Mr. Lazer, a representative of the publishing company, aids us in performing the technical aspects of production. He also informs us of new ideas available for our use, such as the flush margins on all of our body copy. We sincerely thank all three since this publication would have been impossible without their assistance.

We hope everyone is wholly satisfied with this year's Ko-Ka-Le-Ko – "Another Bridge to Cross." It contains many fond memories experienced at Cocalico during 1960-1970.

Foreign Exchange Program

Through the efforts of Student Council, a three way foreign exchange program was initiated at C.H.S. Early in June, Karen Becker traveled to Peru where she resided for three months. In July Genevieve Porret arrived in Denver. She resided with Reverend and Mrs. Geissinger. Rosa Sandoval from Brazil resided with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Becker, Karen's parents. She arrived in October and stayed for three months.

Karen Becker, Mr. Earl Becker, and Rosa Sandoval

Education does not mean teaching people what they do not know. It means teaching them to behave as they do not behave. It is not teaching the youth the shapes of letters and the tricks of numbers, and then leaving them to turn their arithmetic to roguery, and their literature to lust. It means, on the contrary, training them into the perfect exercise and kingly continence of their bodies and souls. It is a painful, continual and difficult work to be done by kindness, by watching, by warning, by precept, and by praise, but above all-by example.

— John Ruskin.

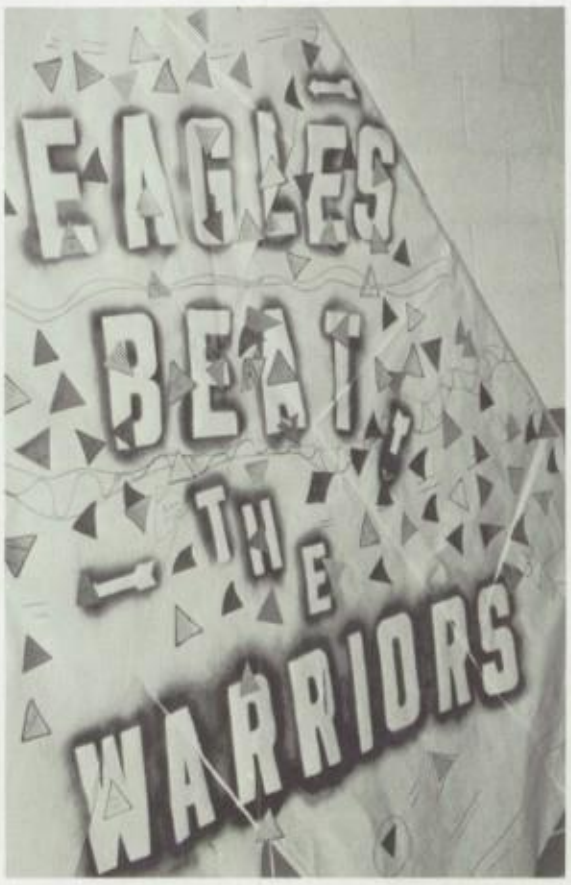
Cheerleaders in action



Once again, Mrs. Wood coached a championship cheering squad. The squad, led by senior co-captains Maria Barracca and Chris Sweigart, was rewarded for the many long hours they spent practicing. This summer at Carol Houck's Cheerleading Camp, the squad received four superior and one honorable mention ribbons. After a week of competition, they were named the number one squad. Then, on Jan. 18, 1970, they captured second place in the Lancaster County Cheering Contest. Congratulations for another successful season!

Hockey

The Cocalico varsity hockey team ended the season with four wins, three losses and one tie to place fifth in the Lancaster County hockey league. The girls credited their victories to team spirit, hard work, and the outstanding coaching of Mrs. Rebecca Campbell and junior varsity coach Miss Joan Kautz. On the field the players showed excellent team work and good running ability. They chose Cathy Steffy and Vivian Shimp as co-captains.

Although the team was plagued by lack of depth, height, and experience, Coach Henry surprised all of Lancaster County by producing a well-disciplined team and a very successful season. Until suffering a 37-35 defeat at C.V. late in the season, the Eagle team was a major contender. However, the team closed the season with a 9-3 record and a third place finish. Congratulations Mr. Henry and the rest of the Eagle team!

Co-captains Eric Unruh and Clarence Gerhart with Coach Henry.

Growth – All growth depends upon activity. There is no development physically or intellectually without effort, and effort means work. Work is not a curse; it is the prerogative of intelligence, the only means to manhood, and the measure of civilization. – Calvin Coolidge.

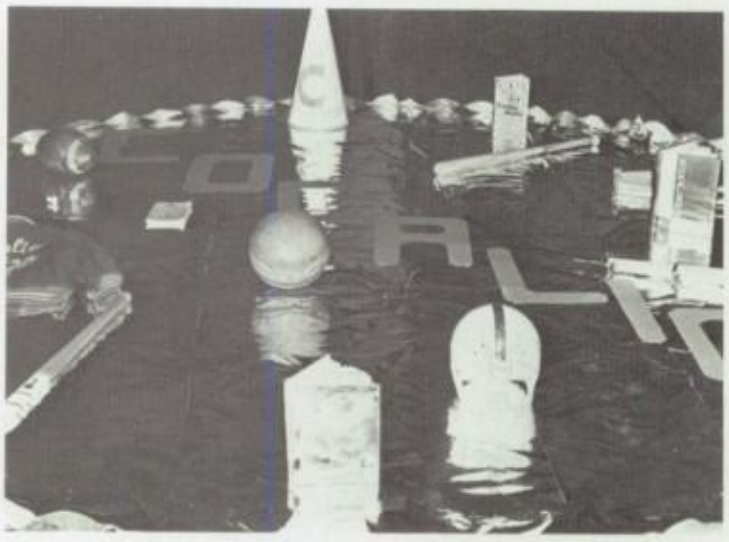
Homecoming



Decorations at the dance show memories in the life of C.H.S.

On Saturday, October 11, Cathy Steffy was crowned Homecoming Queen for 1969 by Student Council President Curt Shreiner. Betsey Kurtz was first runner-up and Janice Hurst was second runner-up. Other candidates included Jody Terwilliger, Bev Heckman, Sharon Boyer, Cindy Hess, and Genevieve Porret. T. Lied, T. Baker, D. Cunningham, P. Miller, D. Krick, R. Ansel, J. Stauffer, and B. Goshert escorted the candidates. During the evening, the Queen, and her Court presided at the Homecoming Dance, "A Night To Remember."

When Mr. Howard Carol (Mike Hornberger) delivered a speech concerning the equality of men and women, kaos broke out in his home and community. Ginger (Becky Schlegel), Howard's daughter, agreed wholeheartedly. She emphasized her support by trying out for the varsity football team. When Ginger made the squad, the situation became worse. She became the topic of conversation in her home, school, and community. Ginger's sisters, Jean and Joan (Vicki Kieffer and Sharon Lied), ignored her. Tommy (Steve Bitler), her boyfriend, became jealous of her physical prowess. Eddie (Todd Snyder), Joan's boyfriend and captain of the football team, laughed at her — until she beat him in a footrace. The bank president, Ed Hoffman (Sam Sise), and the high school principal, Mr. Wilson (Doug Firestone) threatened Mr. & Mrs. Carol. Nevertheless, her father and mother (Elaine Moyer) as well as the maid (Sue Echternacht) supported Ginger. Finally, however, Ginger came to her senses. After much contemplation, she decided to discontinue competing with men, and she "returned" to female status.

"She was magnificant" Howard (M. Hornberger) cries as Lizzie (S. Echternacht) puts him down.

"You're a full-grown juvenile delinquent, Howard Carol!" (M. Hornberger and D. Firestone.

"OOF!" (S. Bitler, T. Snyder)

"the temperamental actress (S. Lied)," says Mr. Schwilk.

"She is a traitor to American woman-hood, per sae," shouts Jeannie. (V. Keiffer.)

On May 12, the Dramatic Art Club competed with nine other schools in the annual drama festival held at Bucks County Playhouse. Our presentation, the third act of "Plaza Suite", was lauded as the best play of the day. Also, Terry Baker (above) received the "best actor" award and Janet Eberly (above) won an honorable mention award for "best actress." Considering the quality of the competition, our club did extremely well. Congratulations!

SPERRY RAND

the decade ahead

. . . will be one of realizing the potential which lies in our roots . . . a period of dramatic change for the entire globe.

Your school years have equipped you with facts, thoughts, questions . . . and some of the answers. Your search for more answers begins now. It is a search that will never end, for the world, with its expanding horizons, is growing further from the simple answer. The excitement and knowledge gained from the search are valuable and will lead to greater, deeper thoughts and understandings.

Know, too, that this search will inevitably lead to the answers of tomorrow . . . answers different from those of today. For tomorrow's world will be a changed world.

You, the graduating class, can claim possession of the roots of knowledge. It is these roots that will direct the rate and course of tomorrow's growth toward a better world.
